

CLOSING PROVIDER POLICY

The Third-Party Services Provider that Wingform uses to close transactions is AIC Global Limited, a private limited company, existing and duly organized under the laws of England under number 13449879 with a registered address at 24 Old Queen Street, London, England, SW1H 9HP ("AIC Global Solutions").

AIC Global Solutions' shall provide its transaction closing services pursuant to its terms and conditions and in accordance with the agreements that govern the transaction you are closing through Wingform. This is a summary description of how AIC Global Solutions operates:

- AIC Global Solutions takes instructions in writing and as confirmed in writing, if given orally
- AIC Global Solutions treats funds received as fully refundable until the transaction documents state that they have become non-refundable
- AIC Global Solutions close when the parties instruct AIC Global Solutions in writing to close
- If there is a dispute as to payment, both parties authorize AIC Global Solutions to hold and not release funds and documents until they settle.

To ensure you experience seamless service, Wingform will communicate with AIC Global Solutions for and on your behalf, and you may also communicate directly with AIC Global Solutions.

The Company or Wingform shall not be held liable for any delay or failure in the disbursement of funds caused by AIC Global Solutions or any other third-party service provider.

Each User shall ensure that all wire transfer instructions and other payment-related information provided to AIC Global Solutions are accurate and complete.

Each user grants Wingform the right to provide an exchange of information and documentation to AIC Global Solutions in relation to the aircraft sale, this includes but is not limited to, the aircraft Bill of Sale, registration documentation, the Aircraft Purchase Agreement (APA), and the closing documentation (De-registration document, Delivery Receipt, Warranties Assignment, Warranty Bill of Sale). The aircraft technical specification, Airworthiness Directives (ADs), certificate of airworthiness, acceptance/rejection letter, bank account information, closing instructions and standing orders. For your information, AIC Global Solutions will handle your data in accordance with its privacy policy, which you may view here: <https://aicglobal.com/GCRHome/PrivacyPolicy>.

Wingform lacks the right to act or sign any legal documentation on behalf of the users in relation to the closing of an aircraft transaction.

By accepting Wingform Terms of Use you agree to appoint AIC Global Solutions as a closing agent and to enter into a direct relationship and agreement with AIC Global Solution in accordance with its terms.

AIC Global are included in Wingform fees and are to be indicated in the Closing Statement. .

Users have the right to directly contact and communicate with AIC Global Solutions in relation to the closing of a transaction if necessary.

AIC Global Solutions may take such action as it deems necessary (in its sole and absolute discretion) if AIC Global Solutions has reasonable grounds to suspect that the Transaction may be fraudulent or otherwise violate applicable law.

AIC Global Solutions may hold and not release any funds or documents in the event of a dispute between the Seller and Purchaser arises and until such time as the dispute settles.